

MISS NELLIE MCGUIRE BECOMES A BRIDE

Is United in Marriage to Mr.
Harry Van Atta.

Ceremony was Performed at the Home of the Bride's Parents Thursday Evening.

At the home of the bride's parents on West Columbia street Thursday evening at eight o'clock, Miss Nellie McGuire and Mr. Harry Van Atta, popular young people of the city were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Holvestott in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

After the customary congratulations had been bestowed, those present were invited to the dining room, where an elegant wedding supper was served. A notable feature of the occasion was that the officiating minister had years ago performed the ceremony that united in holy wedlock the father and mother of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McGuire of this city while the groom is a machinist employed by the Fairbanks Steam Shovel company. The bride and groom received many beautiful presents. They will reside on North Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Van Atta start out on life's pathway carrying with them the best wishes of a host of friends and relatives.

We carry over 2000 Incandescent lamps in stock in 22 different sizes and types and can fill your requirements on short notice. Deliveries in quantities of six or more made to any part of the city. Telephone 292.

October. The report shows that the mail during the month weighed 24, 863 pounds and 13 ounces, a ton heavier than the mail for September.
It is believed to be a record breaker for the month of October.

TROUBLE IN DARKTOWN

Family Fight Results in Arrest.

BRIGGS PLEADED GUILTY

To Charge of Assaulting Mrs.
Kate Robert Bailey.

Mrs. Grace Castleman Has Husband Arrested for Opening Trunk and Destroying Her Dresses.

On complaint of Mrs. Robert Bailey colored, Bert Briggs, also colored, was arrested last night by Officers Cusick and Babcock. Briggs and Mrs. Bailey are neighbors and their troubles might be worked into a mock tragedy sketch entitled "Who Threw Water On My Back Porch?" Some one threw water on Briggs' back porch and Briggs claimed that it was Mrs. Bailey who lives in the same building, a double house in the north end.

When Briggs accused the woman of throwing the water on the porch she became indignant and a wordy fight ensued, in which old people, young people and pickinulines indulged.

Soon Briggs became real "asperated" and started after Mrs. Bailey, who fled to the home of a neighbor but not before Briggs had landed several punches about her head and face.

Mrs. Bailey then appeared in the police court and filed an affidavit against Briggs, causing his arrest.
At first Briggs pleaded not guilty, but this morning he admitted his guilt and was released after he had paid a fine of $1 and costs.

Edward Castleman was arrested this morning by Officer Cusick on a warrant sworn out by his wife, Grace Castleman, charging him with breaking open a trunk belonging to her and destroying dresses of the value of thirty-six dollars.

Castleman admits that he broke open the trunk but claims that he did so to get $40 belonging to him which his wife had in her keeping.
When he found that his wife had taken the money with her he became enraged and threw the clothing about the room promiscuously but he denies having cut it with a knife as is alleged. He claims that his wife has a habit of leaving and drinking with other men and that she spends all of his savings in that manner.

A party of autoists passing through the city, en route from Dayton to Cleveland, got stuck in the mud on Carnar avenue, in the south end late last night. Several unknown persons went to their assistance and finally extricated the machine. After the party had reached the business part of the city they found that two new cravenettes had been taken from their machine while it was being extricated from the mud. The police have been asked to locate the garments.

C. J. Gilbert, a railroad man, was arrested in the Erie yards last night by Officer Wilhelm and a charge of intoxication placed against him on the police blotter. Gilbert was creating a disturbance when arrested.

He got off with a fine of $5 in the mayor's court this morning.

John Bushman, helplessly drunk, was arrested on East Mill street, yesterday afternoon by Officer Cusick who found him lying in the street asleep. He was released this morning after he had paid a fine of $5.

COULD NOT DISAPPOINT

So Young Man Wedded Girl Without a Single Murmur.

Newark, Ohio, November 8.—Lillie Bounds has brought suit for divorce from Ross Bounds on the grounds of abandonment and failure to provide.

The defendant claims that he was forcibly married against his will, he states that on September 15, 1906, he was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cary, near Moore's Corner, where he found 40 wedding guests and a minister and was informed that he was expected to marry Miss Lillian McLain, of Kridersville, the license having been procured by Cary. Young Bounds says that rather than disappoint the guests and the young woman he allowed the ceremony to proceed, but after it was over he left for Newark, since which time he has lived with his mother.

MUSIC CEASES AS GIRL IS STRICKEN SIGHTLESS

Ithaca, N. Y., November 8.—While playing a favorite upon her piano, Miss Grace Day, a pretty student in the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, was suddenly stricken blind today.

The sudden cessation of the music and the piteous cries of alarm from the unfortunate girl brought speedy assistance, and when her landlady, Mrs. M. C. Dayton, and other arrived, they found the girl groping about the room, exclaiming: "I'm blind I'm blind!"

On the advice of a doctor and an oculist, who were immediately called, Miss Day was removed to her home at Ridgeway, Pennsylvania.

The only explanation for the sudden stroke is found in an attack of lockjaw which Miss Day had this summer.
